Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sarah S. Glanzer was born on the family homestead in McCook County, South Dakota, on August 3, 1914, one of five children born to Russian immigrants; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Sarah married Samuel E. Glanzer on November 7, 1940, also on the homestead in McCook County, South Dakota, and gave life and love to three children: Marvin, Clifford, and Lucille; and,

Whereas, Sarah and Samuel farmed 1 mile from the homestead most of their married life with Sarah actively assisting with the farming operation, as well as maintaining a garden, canning and cooking, and still found time to spend with her children playing ball and instilling honesty and a hard work ethic; and,

Whereas, Sarah has always shown an interest in, and been willing to help with, her 16 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren, and they fondly remember her homemade chicken noodle soup and cookies and playing games; and,

Whereas, Sarah will observe her 90th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather on August 8, 2004, at the Tieszen Memorial Home at Marion, South Dakota, to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 8, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join all her many friends and relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

SARAH GLANZER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State